

Zoo Hunt

Use the signs at the exhibits to help you answer the following questions. Look carefully, some are difficult to find.
Good luck and happy hunting!

1. What does AZA stand for?
2. How do elephants protect their skin?
3. What are the colors of the king vulture?
4. What is the scientific name for the Chilean flamingo?
5. Where is the Great hornbill found in the wild?
6. What is an Okapi's closest animal relative?
7. Is a tapir an herbivore, carnivore, or omnivore? What does that mean?
8. Why can't the Zoo's bald eagle live in the wild?
9. How did Chachalacas get their name?
10. What desert animal is good at climbing trees?
11. What is the color of the male Bird wrasse (it's a fish)?

12. A coral reef consists of thousands of what?
13. What are two unique habitats found in Natural Encounters?
14. What animal at the Zoo has leucism?
15. What snake has the reputation for being "the most feared snake in Africa"?
16. The bright colors found on the Mandarin newt warn predators of what?
17. What is the name of the longest snake in the world and how long can it grow?
18. How did the Spectacled bear get his name?
19. On what continent does the Cotton-top tamarin live?
20. How do male and female mandrill's appearances differ?

